

Chandrasekhar assumes office of IIM-Vizag director

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Visakhapatnam

M Chandrasekhar assumed the office of the director of the Indian Institute of Management, Visakhapatnam (IIM-V) on Wednesday. Before he was appointed as the first director of IIM-V, Chandrasekhar worked as a professor at the Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI) in Hyderabad from April 2002 to March 2017.

"With a heightened focus on integrated learning, innovative curriculum, imaginative teaching, internationalisation and enriching the competence of students, IIM-V will soon be an institution with a difference," Chandrasekhar said after taking the charge.

An engineer and management professional by training and an alumnus of IITs at Delhi and Bombay, Chandrasekhar, at present, is the director for Centre for Public Policy, Governance and Performance.

During these tenures, he held many academic and administrative leadership positions like director-in-charge of the Centre for Poverty Studies and Rural Development and many more. Chandrasekhar has also been the chairman and member of several high-power committees constituted by the several Ministries and departments of the Government of India.
